

Joshua Zeller, Business Advisor with the University of Houston-Victoria Small Business Development Center (UHV-SBDC). Joshua was recently awarded the title of Certified Business Advisor level I by the University of Texas-San Antonio. This certification level is based on advanced training and professional development in small business topics, economic impact and business success stories generated, and client satisfaction reviews. Joshua earned his BBA in management from UHV and is currently pursuing his MBA from UHV as well.